

DEPARTMENT OF POLITICAL SCIENCE

Name of the programme: B.A POLITICAL SCIENCE (General) (Under CBCS)

Year of Introduction: 2018

Programme Specific Outcomes (PSO)

PSO 1: This course imparts knowledge about some basic concepts of the discipline.

PSO 2 : This course contains various approaches to the study of the discipline and provides basic understanding of the Marxian approach.

PSO 3 : This course provides knowledge about the constitutional system of India.

PSO 4: This course deals with the structures and processes of the Indian political system and the impact of various factors on it.

PSO 5 : This course gives an idea about ancient and medieval Indian political thought. It also provides knowledge of the political thoughts of some modern Indian political thinkers.

PSO 6 : This course deals with the evolution of comparative politics and major approaches to the study of it. It also discusses constitutional structures of different political systems of the world by comparative analysis.

PSO 7 : This course aims at giving students an idea about the major theories and emergent issues of IR and the determinants and phases of Indian Foreign Policy.

PSO 8 : This course deals with the political thoughts of various Indian political thinkers of pre and immediate post-independence period.

PSO 9 : This course deals with the evolution of global politics since 1945 along with major institutions of global governance. It also discusses India's relationship with its neighbours and the role of UNO.

PSO 10 : This course gives an idea about ancient and medieval western political thought and disusses the political thoughts of some eminent western political thinkers.

PSO 11 : This course on the one hand discusses political thoughts of some major western political thinkers and on the other hand gives an idea about various types of socialism.

PSO 12 : This course deals with a bunch of major concepts of political sociology.

PSO 13: This course gives the basic idea about the key concepts of public administration.

PSO 14: This course provides a basic idea about administration and public policy in India.

COURSE OUTCOME (CO)

B.A. Core Courses Generic Electives (GE)

Semester 1

PLSG CC 1 (Introduction to Political Theory):

CO 1 - The understanding of the basic concepts enables the students to go into the depth of the discipline.

Semester 2

PLSG CC 2 (Comparative Government and Politics) :

CO 1 - This allows students to learn about the political system of different countries and enrich their knowledge.

Semester 3

PLSG CC 3 (Government and politics in India) :

CO 1 - It makes the students aware of the structure and the processes of the political system of their own country so that they become an responsible citizen.

Semester 4

PLSG CC 4 (International Relations) :

CO 1 - Students will be able to understand the major theories of IR.

CO 2 - Students will know about the Second World War and emergence of cold war and its different phases

CO3: Students will also have a detailed idea of the determinants and the different phases of Indian Foreign Policy.

Semester 5

PLSG-DSE-A5 (Indian Foreign Policy) :

CO 1 - Students can gain knowledge about nature, evolution, major determinants and instruments of Indian foreign policy.

CO 2 - India's relationship with its neighbours will be clear to the students.

Semester 6

PLSG-DSE-B6 (Human Rights: Theory and Indian Context) :

CO 1 - Students can know about the evolution of the concept of human rights and the role of UN in maintaining human rights.

CO 2 - Students can gain knowledge about the status of human rights in India.