Notice to Students for Collection of I Card & Regular Class Attendance

Students of BA/BSc/BCom Semester I classes of Ananda Mohan College are directed to collect their College Identity Card (I Card) from the Library within next five (5) working days between 5 PM to 7.30 PM.

Students of BA/BSc/BCom Semester III and V (who are at the doorstep of Semester VI) classes of the college, whose College Identity Card (I Card) has been somehow lost or misplaced, are asked to report college office in writing with submission of a copy of the General Diary (GD) lodged at the local police station against such loss of I Card and to pay a fine of Rs. 100/= to the college for reissue of duplicate copy of the lost Identity Card.

Furthermore, students of all existing semesters of the College are once more asked to attend classes regularly to avoid any trouble in appearing their respective Semester-end CU Examinations.

Students with poor class attendance will not be allowed to appear in their respective Semester-end CU Examinations.

This is to be noted by all students of our institution with highest level of priority.
